

History & Culture Committee Minutes, October 10, 2018

Members attending: Christine Torres, Jane Fidacaro, Jim Fidacaro, Al Capetta, Ed Ruzbarsky, Tim Rack, Joyce Tronolone, Karen Eastlund, Pat Mastice, Zach Bray.

The members of the History & Culture Committee of Raritan met with local artists in the Raritan Public Library at 6:30 pm to encourage them to submit artwork for the purpose of covering town benches with scenes of Raritan. A few local artists attended. Jim Fidacaro introduced the project and suggested a timeline. He shared a number of pictures or ideas to indicate the type of art we would consider. He pointed out that the computer in the new room at the library is full of historical pictures from town. Artists asked questions and reacted to the timeline. Jim suggested January 1st as a deadline, but if artwork could not be ready by then, we could extend until the end of January. Our hope is to place artwork on the benches in the spring of 2019. After some questions and general discussion, Jim thanked everyone for attending and the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully,
Karen Eastlund, Secretary
